Trail crew - 'Trail of the Week'

Trail of the week is the Trigger Happy trail past Corn Hill. Rideable as both a climbing and descending trail to/from Howqua Gap, link this into the lower section of Woolybutts for the most fun when riding downhill.

For the beginner riders make sure to check out the new features found on Billy Buttons beginner loop, located on the village toboggan slope.

Trail closures

There are no existing trail closures to report. Delatite River Trail is now OPEN, however, works to complete the replacement log crossings are still to be finalised, these two locations will still require mandatory river crossings. You will get wet.
