Trail closures & information

Proposed Forest Fire Management Victoria (FFMV) Planned Burn

A planned burn in the Carter's Road /Plain Creek region will have an impact on the Australian Alpine Epic Trail sometime between now and the end of May. FFMV will give Bike Buller between 24-48 hours' notice of this burn proceeding. The Epic trail will be closed at Razorback Hut in this scenario. Updates will be posted on Bike Buller website and Bike Buller Facebook should this occur.

Detour in place – Gang Gang's and Corn Hill Road intersection

Detours are in place to allow riders safe passage through construction works on Corn Hill Rd from the bottom of Gang Gang's trail. Riders are to proceed with caution to re-join Picnic Trail on the other side of Corn Hill Road. This is also the procedure if returning to the Mt Buller Village via Wombat Trail, again crossing Corn Hill Road and heading up the Split Rock trail. For all the info visit the Bike Buller website

Peak Pics 2018 Exhibition

Stop by Reception at Alpine Central to view the winners of the annual winter Peak Pics competition, showcasing the best photos of Mt Buller and Mt Stirling. The 2018 theme was 'A Different Perspective'.

Buller Air Zone

27-28 April and 25-26 May: 1pm-6pm

Play, jump and climb where Olympians train! Great for parties and functions. Book online here or at Reception in Alpine Central.
